

SHOT IN CROWD WHILE LOOKING AT NEW REVOLVER

Fred Woodworth, twenty years old, of No. 6 Rutland avenue, Flatbush, was rushed to the Kings County Hospital early this morning with a bullet wound in his abdomen, accidentally fired. Woodworth says, by Frank Hader, who runs a cafe at No. 64 Flatbush avenue. According to Woodworth and William Roach, a friend, several young men had gathered in the cafe late last night, and one who had just purchased a new type automatic revolver was showing the others how the thing worked. He was about to take the cartridges out when Hader came from behind the bar and asked to see the weapon.

Woodworth handed it over to Hader and the next moment there was a shot and Woodworth sank to the floor. Roach, Woodworth and Hader all insist that there was no quarrel, but the police looked Hader up in the Flatbush avenue station on a charge of felonious assault.

Woodworth's wound is dangerous, but probably not fatal.

Workman Struck by "L" Train.
H. Nelson, twenty-five years old, of No. 20 East One Hundred and Eighty-ninth street, while working on the structure of the Sixth avenue "L" at Columbus avenue and Seventy-ninth street early today, was struck by a south-bound express train. He was taken to Roosevelt Hospital suffering from lacerations of the scalp and other apparently slight wounds.

Why The Aeolian Company's New Piano The Stroud, at $250 Is The Greatest Piano At Its Price In The World

Because the Aeolian Company is the largest manufacturer of musical instruments in the world.

Because this Company, operating nine large factories in this country and two abroad, can buy materials cheaper than any other manufacturer.

Because it has in its employ, experts who are daily engaged in constructing the finest and most expensive musical instruments that are made.

Because these experts, together with such famous piano-builders as the heads of the Weber, the Steck, the Wheelock and the Stuyvesant factories, have co-operated to make this piano a masterpiece of workmanship.

Because every instrument the Aeolian Company produces is made to conform to a certain standard, recognized throughout the entire musical world as the highest in the industry.

Because no other manufacturer, however ambitious, can bring to bear on the construction of a piano-forte, a fraction of the musical and mechanical experience and ability represented by the combined forces of this imposing organization.

Come To Aeolian Hall And Hear This Great Piano

Bring a music teacher or a musical friend. It will be a revelation to you both. No such superb tone, perfect action and beautiful case has ever been represented in a piano before at anything like its price.

Secure this magnificent instrument for your home, now. Within a year it will have become famous.

You will see it in the best homes you visit. If you should ever want to sell it, it will have a value twice that of any other moderate priced instrument.

Payments That You Will Not Feel

You can buy the superb Stroud Piano in such small monthly payments that it amounts actually to but a few cents a day.
